

CODE OF PRACTICE

Complaint handling and dispute resolution for Home and Small Business Customers

Updated: January 2018

1. PURPOSE

- 1.1 This Code of Practice provides a clear statement of who we are, and how we provide support to our Home and Small Business customers. It provides sufficient information for you, the residential customer or small business, to understand the dispute resolution process should you have any reason to initiate a dispute or make a complaint in relation to our services.
- 1.2 Call Flow strives to provide the best possible service to its customers. From time to time things can go wrong - should this happen, we want to resolve any complaints you might have. Please get in touch with us so we can attempt to put it right.
- 1.3 Nothing within this Code of Practice forms or is intended to form any contract between you and Call Flow Solutions. Our Terms and Conditions, including the Price Guide, describe the current products and services available from Call Flow. Nothing within this code of Practice affects your legal rights.

2. ABOUT CALL FLOW

3. HOW TO RAISE A COMPLAINT

- 3.1 If you're not satisfied with the service you are receiving please follow our complaints procedure below. We commit to resolving issues in efficiently and promptly.
- 3.2 When you wish to start a complaint please contact us using any of the channels listed below and ask Customer Services for a complaint reference. You must quote this reference in future correspondence relating to your complaint.
  - Telephone - 0800 280 0590
  - Live chat - found on our website www.callflow.co.uk

- Email - support@callflow.co.uk
- Mail - Customer Services, Call Flow Solutions Limited, Suite 2, Branbridges Industrial Estate, East Peckham, Kent, TN12 5HF.

3.3 There are up to four stages in the dispute resolution process.

Stage 1

- Once you have a complaint reference number, please send us details of your complaint along with your complaint reference number, and we will respond within 10 working days. You may do this via email or mail. You will receive a written response from us within 10 working days.

Stage 2

- If you are not satisfied with our proposed plan of action, please write to us by email or post quoting your complaint reference number requesting that your complaint be referred to the Customer Services Manager. You will then receive a further written response within 10 working days.

Stage 3

- If you are still unhappy with the proposed plan of action, please write to us by email or post quoting your complaint reference number requesting that your complaint be escalated to our Director of Technical Services.

Stage 4

- The final stage of the complaints process enables you to contact Otelo, the independent ombudsman. Otelo is an independent approved dispute resolution service and is approved by the UK telecommunications regulator, Ofcom.
- Please be aware that Otelo can only assist if you have completed Stages 1 to 3 of our dispute resolution process above, and given us adequate opportunity to resolve your issue. Otelo's contact details can be found at <https://www.ombudsman-services.org/sectors/communications/contact-us>.
- An unresolved complaint can be referred to Ofcom three months after it is first made, or if a letter has been sent explaining the issue has reached 'Deadlock'. If you require further information on the role of Ofcom, please visit <http://www.ofcom.org.uk/>.
